

Campus Hazing Transparency Report Baruch College

Academic Year: 2025-2026

Date of Report: June 9, 2026

There were no findings of responsibility for hazing violations between July 1, 2025 and June 9, 2026.

Baruch College and The City University of New York ("CUNY") is committed to ensuring a safe environment in which all students have the right to participate in organizations without undergoing hazing as a right of entry or membership. Hazing is strictly prohibited by CUNY, consistent with the Rules and Regulations for the Maintenance of Public Order Pursuant to Article 129-A of the Educational Law (the "Henderson Rules").

As of July 9, 2026, for Academic Year 2025-2026, Baruch College confirms that there have been no substantiated allegations of hazing involving student organizations established or recognized by the institution.

Should an individual wish to submit a hazing complaint, they can do so through the Baruch College Office of the Dean of Students and/or the Baruch Public Safety Department. Complaints may also be submitted to CUNY's Office of Student Affairs at StudentAffairs@CUNY.edu. If there is an immediate threat to a student's health and safety, call 911 or Baruch Public Safety at 646-312-3333. Anyone who is a victim of hazing is also encouraged to contact the campus Counseling Center which can provide counseling and support services to students.
